Submitted by Carole Labe

½ cup brown sugar
½ cup butter; softened
¼ cup corn syrup
2 tubes refrigerated crescent rolls or sheets
2/3 cup chopped pecans
¼ cup sugar
1 tsp cinnamon

Preheat oven to 375°. Lightly grease two 8x8 pans; set aside.

In a small bowl combine brown sugar, butter and corn syrup. Spread in two baking pans and set aside. Unroll each tube of crescent roll dough into a rectangle; seal seams and perforations. Combine pecans, sugar and cinnamon; sprinkle over dough.

Roll up, jelly-roll style, starting with long side. Seal edge. Cut each roll into 16 slices. Place cut side down in prepared pans.

Bake 13-17 min or until golden brown. Cool in pans for 1 minute before inverting onto serving plates. Makes 32 rolls.
