

Newsletter Editor

The Linglestown Life is looking for an editor for the monthly newsletter. This volunteer position is available immediately to an individual who has computer skills in word processing and/or publishing. Previous experience in compiling and editing a newsletter is helpful but not necessary since training will be available. Please indicate your interest by e-mailing the church office at LinglestownLife@comcast.net For more information, please contact the church office at 545-5200.
